*Redwood Glen program camp dress code:

- Shoes must be appropriate for running, jumping, climbing and playing safely. High platform soles, backless shoes, shoes with wheels and flip-flops are not appropriate for camp.
- Pants should be worn at the waist, not be too baggy or too tight.
- Shorts should reach mid-thigh.
- Shirts should cover the midriff even with arms raised. Halters, tube tops or spaghetti straps are not allowed at camp.
- All clothing should completely cover undergarments and should not display vulgar, rude or inappropriate messages.
- Swimsuits should be modest in style and appearance.

It is the responsibility of Redwood Glen to provide a physically, emotionally, and spiritually supportive safe environment for all campers, volunteers and staff. To that end, Redwood Glen requests all attire and in particular bathing/swimming attire is modest in nature. Redwood Glen reserves the right to request any camper or staff to cover or change attire that is deemed by the Redwood Glen Summer Program Director and individual camp director to be inappropriate.
